

Cheer Rules of Conduct for Coaches:

1. All Coaches will complete and pass a background check before beginning as a coach. Background check will be paid for by RLLCA.
2. All coaches shall be expected to teach fair play, good sportsmanship, and the team concept to their squad through their good example and conduct.
3. Coaches are responsible for the following:
 - a) To conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner in dealing with coaches, cheerleaders, parents, and fans.
 - b) To control the conduct of their squad.
 - i. This includes if cheerleader(s) become unmanageable or become argumentative with coaches. If a cheerleader does not cooperate with instruction during practices/games, Coaches will bench the cheerleader for that day.
 - c) To offer 2 nights of practice at minimum to their squad.
4. Profanity or use of alcoholic beverages and/or illegal drugs will not be tolerated.
5. Each coach should make every effort to see that all Cheerleaders participate in every game. This is subject to the Cheerleaders practice and participation conduct.
6. Coordinators will purchase all equipment. Anything purchased by a Coach is his/her responsibility unless otherwise authorized by the RLLCA Board of Directors. The only required uniform and equipment is that set by the league.
7. Coaches must document any communication with a cheerleader and /or parent regarding behavior and possible consequences.

8. Failure to comply with above mentioned Rules of Conduct could result in the suspension or dismissal of a Coach if it is appropriate and approved by the RLLCA Board of Directors.

20 July 2023