Grievance Procedure:

Anyone having a grievance should give that grievance in writing to a NLLCA Board Member. Any grievance against a coach/parent should be presented to a board member. Any grievance against a board member should be given to a separate board member. Anyone having a grievance will be allowed to present that grievance before the board where both sides will be allowed to present their case. Decisions by the board will be final. If you are not satisfied with the outcome of the decision, and chose to separate from NLLCA, your child will no longer participate in NLLCA functions (such as games, practices, parties, etc.)
